VOLUNTEER UNITED
Strengthen Employee Engagement

Volunteer United works with you to connect your employees with opportunities to learn about community needs and engage with your corporate philanthropy and corporate social responsibility (CSR) goals.

Our team of experts will create unique volunteer opportunities for your employees that educate and inspire as well as promote team building, enhance company culture and help solve community needs that no one can solve alone.

“When I volunteer with my coworkers, it fuels a sense of togetherness and unity because we’re working towards a common goal. My company is very strong when it comes to volunteerism, and that means a lot to me. I feel a sense of meaning and purpose when I help other people.”

Inspire Meaningful Community Involvement

We help companies of all types and sizes drive significant social change across our community through volunteerism.

Employees who volunteer have a greater awareness and understanding of community needs, a sense of connectedness to their community and increased job satisfaction. Aligning your employees’ interests and passions with meaningful volunteer experiences can result in greater employee retention while building your company’s brand and reputation.
Meet Real Community Needs

Pack for Impact Kits
Volunteer United offers a variety of ready-to-go, team building projects that have an immediate impact on our community.

Custom Volunteer Projects
Mobilize your team and support your organization’s social responsibility platform. Using our knowledge of community needs and providing complete volunteer project services, our team of experts can design meaningful and customized volunteer events for teams of all sizes.

Essential Supply Drive Events
Help support our neighbors by hosting an essential supply drive at your place of business. Basic need items such as nonperishable foods, educational support and household items are needed year-round for families across the greater Twin Cities. The Volunteer United team will provide start-to-end services for your supply drive.

Community Volunteer Events
ACTION DAY
Help tens-of-thousands of local students be successful in the classroom by providing backpacks full of school supplies.

HOME FOR GOOD
Help provide hundreds of Welcome Home kits full of essential household supplies to support local families transitioning into a new home.

Community volunteer events provide a variety of ways to engage your employees, including:

• Volunteer in-person at the event
• Hosting exclusive satellite events at your place of business *See Action Day and Home For Good Satellite brochures for more details
• Sponsoring the event with a financial or in-kind product donation
• Promoting Volunteer At Home opportunities to your employees to bring the volunteer experience home and engage family and friends
Total Program Support

Volunteer United’s team of experts provide comprehensive, start-to-end project management and execution services for several types of volunteer projects and for groups of all sizes, including:

• Project development, oversight and execution
• On-site visits and planning sessions
• Messaging and communication examples
• Event registration support
• Event set-up and clean-up
• Event staffing and support
• Coordination of partnership with benefiting nonprofits

We can also help you measure the impact your employees’ volunteer efforts are making in our community.

“It’s very important to me to work at a company that supports volunteerism- it makes me proud. Volunteering is also a great way to take the focus off myself and instead focus on other people. I like how close I feel to helping families in need.”
